Son of Capt. John Evans, New Quay, newly elected mayor of Cardigan 1852. Held seat on town Co since 1845. Apprentice to the well-known Cardiff chemist J. D. Treharne. Succeeded to the business of John Williams, 17 years ago. Marr 1878 to Miss Watkins dau of D. Watkins, Melbourne Ho. Director of the C Gas Co; and of the C Mercantile Co.; vice-chair of Burial Board. Sec of the Auxiliary branch of the Bible Society, a deacon with CM, and a prominent Temperance wrkr. Being an old eisteddfodwr and a winner of several prizes, he has always identified himself with all movements for the promotion of music and literature in the town. [CT 1852]

On 5th November 1875 the business was taken over by 23 year old Evan Ceredig Evans, who also lived here. On 12th November 1878 Evan C. Evans, son of Captain John Evans, married Sarah Jeremiah Watkins, daughter of mine manager David Watkins of High Street. Their eldest son was born on 8th August 1879, Frederick.

In 1901-16 H. H. Evans, boot & shoe-maker, traded here. On 24th October 1901 Catherine Isabel Evans was born to Mrs. & Mr. H. H. Evans, boot-maker. On 9th July 1903 a son was born to Mrs. & Mr. Henry Harries Evans, boot-maker of St. Mary Street. On 29th March 1905 a daughter was born to Mrs. & Mr. H. H. Evans, boot-maker. On 15th June 1906 Megan Ceinwen Evans, 3 month old daughter of Mr. & Mrs. H. H. Evans, died. In September 1906 H. H. Evans of No. 8 was teaching music. On 25th December 1907 a son was born to Mrs. & Mr. H. H. Evans of No. 8. On 10th March 1911 a daughter was born to Mrs. H. H. Evans. On 18th April 1915 Catherine Isabel Evans (born 24th October 1901), daughter of boot-maker H. H. Evans and Eva Evans was baptised at St. Mary's Church. On 14th May 1916 Henry Harries Evans of No. 8, died aged 43.

In August 1918 Mrs. H. H. Evans of No. 8 was informed that her son, 3rd Engineer Reginald Evans, was missing following the sinking of his vessel. He was 24. On 18th April 1922 Lilian Gwladys Evans, 23, of No. 8 married Benjamin Jones, 29, of No. 26 Castle Street, Cardigan, the son of John James Jones.

In 1923 Mrs. H. H. Evans and Mrs. B. Jones lived here. On 14th April 1925 Miss Cissie J. Evans, daughter of the late Henry H. Evans and Mrs. Evans of No. 8, married Arthur Evans of the Drapery Bazaar, Pendre. In 1927 Mrs. Evans lived here. On 22nd September 1928 J. H. C. Evans, son of the late Henry H. Evans of No. 8, married Miss Rhoda Kendal of North Road.

On 18th August 1934 William Glyndwr Evans, youngest son of Mrs. H. H. Evans of No. 8, married Miss Mary Thomas of Boncath. In 1937-44 Mrs. Evans lived here. On 28th September 1944 Mrs. Hannah Evan Evans, widow of Henry Harries Evans, died aged 72. During World War II William Glyndwr Evans of No. 8 was killed in action.

A native of Solva, he moved to Cardigan when he was 20 years old. He was a bootmaker by trade. His workshop was in 8 St. Mary's St. He was an excellent music teacher and conducted the Cardigan Choral Society for many years. He was also an accomplished artist in oil and watercolour. He composed a number of hymn-tunes for the local Singing Festivals e.g. Ar ei ben bo'r goron (1913); Cyfaill plant bychain (1909); Dewi (1914); Felinganol (1913); Induna (1913); Strathmore (1915); Ynys Dewi (1914). He disagreed with the decision to postpone the 1915 Cymanfa Ganu and strangely was buried on the very day that it was originally arranged to be held.

Evans, James Samuel Private, S/4980, Black Watch.

James was born at Cardigan in 1883, the son of Daniel and Jane Evans. He had lived with his brother, John Phillip Evans, at Argoed, Glanrafon Road, Pencoed, Bridgend, prior to the war, and enlisted at Tonypany into the army. James was posted to the 9th Battalion (Royal Highlanders), Black Watch, which was attached to 46 Brigade, 15th (Scottish) Division. James landed in France with his battalion on 7 July 1915, and the Division formed in the Loos area, where it was soon to gain a reputation as one of the most formidable in the British Army. Here they fought at the Battle of Loos on 25 September 1915. James was killed in action that day, during a suicidal assault on the Hohenzollern Redoubt. He was 32 years old, and is commemorated on the Loos Memorial, France. James is not commemorated in Cardigan, but at Cilgerran.

In 1847 he was a shareholder in the 48-ton Cardigan ship James. He moved to larger premises at 4 High Street in the 1850s, No.4. By 1861 chemist and druggist James Seabourne Evans moved here from smaller premises at 7 High Street. By 1868 he was selling "Sun Fire & Life Insurance". He remained here until at least 1875, by which time he must have been sharing the property.

Evans, John Private, 1918, Welsh Regiment.

John was the son of John and Mary Evans, of Penybank Farm, Cardigan. He enlisted at Cardigan into the Welsh Regiment, and landed in France on 28 July 1915, where he was posted to the 2nd Battalion, Welsh Regiment. The battalion had been in France since the outbreak of war, attached to 3 Brigade, 1st Division. John saw his first major action during the Battle of Loos, and the action at the Hohenzollern redoubt, where John suffered gunshot wounds to the chest. He had recovered and rejoined the battalion in time to fight at the Battle of the Somme. They followed the German retreat to the Hindenburg Line in early 1917, and were then briefed for an operation on the Flanders Coast, and moved there during the summer of 1917. While training on the coast, the Battle of Third Ypres had stalled in the mire, and the Division were recalled to Ypres, where they fought at the Second Battle of Passchendaele. After spending another Winter in Flanders, they were near Estaires when the German Spring Offensive caught them, and saw heavy casualties in the following days. John survived this terrible period of the war, but was badly wounded in June. He died of his wounds on 21 June 1918, aged 23, and is buried at Pernes British Cemetery, France.

Evans, John Henry Howard Able Seaman, C/JX 168157, Royal Navy.

John was the son of John Henry and Phoebe Elizabeth Evans, of Nythfa, Cardigan. He served with the Royal Navy aboard HMS Jaguar, a J class destroyer. Jaguar participated in Operation Abstention in February 1941, and engaged the Italian destroyer Crispi, and took part in the Battle of Cape Matapan. On 26 March 1942, she was struck by two torpedoes fired by the German submarine U-652, and sank off Sidi Barrani with the loss of 190 of her crew. John was 23 years old when he died that day, and is commemorated on the Chatham Naval Memorial, Kent.

Evans, Lawrence Picton Lieutenant, Royal Fusiliers.

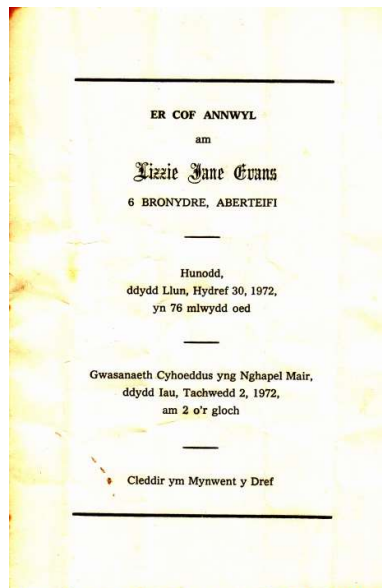

Lawrence was born at Cardigan on 21 November 1875, the son of William Picton Evans and Margaretta Elizabeth Evans. The family later resided at 13, Queen's Road, Ealing, London. Lawrence was educated at Clifton College, and worked for H.M. Factories Inspectorate prior to the war. He was commissioned into the 6th Battalion, Royal Fusiliers on 28 April 1915. He was posted to France on 21 August 1915, joining the 4th Battalion, Royal Fusiliers, which was attached to 9 Brigade, 3rd Division. Lawrence joined the battalion at Ypres, and in 1916 fought at the Actions of the Bluff, and at the St Eloi Craters. The Division then moved south, and fought throughout the Battle of the Somme. In May 1917 the Division fought at the Battle of Arras, before moving back to Ypres in the summer, where they fought in the Third Battle of Ypres. In November the Division moved south again, where they fought at the Battle of Cambrai, and they were in the area during March 1918 when the German Spring Offensive swept through the British lines, at the Battle of St Quentin and the First Battle of Bapaume. They then fought at the First Battle

- of Arras 1918 before being moved to Flanders to rebuild. However the Germans switched the focus of their offensive to Flanders, and the Division were caught up in the worst of the fighting there, at the Battle of Estaires, and then at the Battles of Hazebrouck and Bethune. By now the German offensive had stalled, and the Division were moved south to take part in the great British offensive, and on 21 August 1918 fought at the Battle of Albert. Lawrence was killed in action on the first day of the offensive, on 21 August 1918. He was 42 years old, and is buried at Railway Cutting Cemetery, Courcelles-Le-Comte, France. His brother, Richard also fell.

Evans, Richard William Picton MID, Major, Welsh Regiment.

Richard was born at Cardigan in 1873, the son of William Picton Evans and Margarette Ellen Evans. His parents later resided at 13, Queen's Road, Ealing, London. Richard was educated at Cheltenham College, and married Katherine Frances Blake in London in 1901, the couple moving to Argoes, Cardigan, where Richard ran his own Solicitor's business. Katherine sadly died in 1909. Richard had served during the Boer War with the 1st Volunteer Battalion, Welsh Regiment, and by the outbreak of the Great War held the rank of Major, with the 4th Battalion, Welsh Regiment. He was posted at his own request to Alexandria in December 1916, joining the front line unit, the 1/4th Battalion, Welsh Regiment, which was attached to 158 Brigade, 53rd (Welsh) Division. Richard played a major part in the battalions subsequent war, seeing action during the three Battles of Gaza, and the triumphant capture of Jerusalem, being wounded at Gaza. Richard died in Palestine on 13 September 1918. He was 46 years old, and is buried at Gaza War Cemetery, Israel. His brother Lawrence also fell.

 [d. CTA 08.02.1929] gifted Welsh poet

You may have heard of Telynog but here is his nephew Tel. Born in Mwldan Upper in 1861. His father John (Telynog's brother) was a bootmaker and precentor at Bethania (1864–76). Thomas moved to Aberdare in 1888. He was employed as a miner and underground fireman. He also was a fine poet and often competed at local eisteddfodau. His wife Ruth died in 1908. In 1909 he won his first chair in Llwynypia eisteddfod. He won the chair for 'Angladd ar y Môr' (Funeral on the Sea) in Cardigan's Semi-National Eisteddfod of 1909, in front of a crowd of 8, 000. He won 10 bardic chairs. He was also a fine musician, as a choirmaster and he led many Singing Festival across Wales. Tel was also active in the mining community and played an important role on the local miners' Sliding Scale Committee. He had 8 children, two of them Taliesin (ap Tel) and Ceridwen (Telferch) were also poets.

Evans, Thomas Seaman, 3646A, Royal Naval Reserve.

Thomas was born at Cardigan on 22 May 1881, the son of Mary Evans. Prior to the war he resided with his wife, Elizabeth Evans, at 7, David Street, St. Dogmaels. Thomas served with the Royal Navy, aboard HMS Majestic. Majestic was a pre-dreadnought battleship, which had been launched in 1895, and had served with the Channel Fleet until 1904, until she was assigned to the Atlantic Fleet. In 1907, she was part of the Home Fleet, then from 1912, she was part of the 7th Battle Squadron. When World War I broke out Majestic, was attached to the Channel Fleet, and in early 1915 was dispatched to the Mediterranean for service in the Dardanelles Campaign. She participated in bombardments of Turkish forts and supported the Allied landings at Gallipoli. On 27 May 1915, she was torpedoed by a U-boat at Cape Helles, sinking with the loss of 49 men. Thomas was amongst the dead. He was 24 years old, and is commemorated on the Plymouth Naval Memorial, Devon.

Evans, W. Gilbert, Bridgend, Welsh Congreg. Minister d. 40 Nolton St.

Born at Cardigan 70 yrs ago [1837]; 4 yrs Brecon Memo Coll; then Trecastell, Brecs.

State of his health meant he left to Pontyclun, and then Gilead, Coity for 12 yrs. Chapel rebuilt at a cost of £800. As member of the old Coity School Board, he caused some stir by objecting to what he considered improper methods of conducting public business, and his exposures led the Ed Dept disbanding the Board and electing a new Board.

On leaving Coity he was presented with an illuminated address and a purse of gold, and Mrs Evans was presented with a marble clock and other gifts.

Last pastorate was at Pentretygwyn, near Llandovery from which he retrd 9 yrs ago owing to failing health. Retd to Bridgend.

Man of strong convictions and always had the courage of his opinions.

He was considered something of an expert in composing skeletons of sermons and in connecting ideas.

A book of sermons which he published was favourably commented upon by critics and had a large sale. He was a frequent contributor to the denominational Press.

He marr Miss Hopkins, Aberdare, a sis of Wm Hopkins, Brigend. He is survived by the wid and 3 daus, May a Teggie, eldest is Miss Bronwen Evans [Mrs Threadgold?] the well-known vocalist. Funeral yesterday. [Glam Gaz 16.08.1907]

Evans, William Glyndwr Able Seaman, D/J 110359, Royal Navy.

Glyn was the son of Henry Harries Evans and Hannah Eva Evans, of Cardigan, and the husband of Hannah Mary Evans, of Cilgerran. He served in the Royal Navy aboard HMS Scarborough, which was a Hastings class sloop, which had been launched in 1930. She saw active service during the Second World War, especially as a convoy escort in the North Atlantic. She survived the war, but William died aboard Scarborough on 4 June 1942. He was 42 years old, and is commemorated on the Plymouth Naval Memorial, Devon.
