Digwyddiad dychrynlyd:

Tua hanner awr wedi tri o'r gloch, prydawn ddydd Mercher diwethaf, daeth tad Mrs Jones, priod Mr Thomas Jones, plastrwr, Stryd Mwldan ganol, i mewn i'r tŷ yn feddw. Fel agos pob dyn meddw, efe a wnai gryn drwst. Gorchmynodd ei fab-yn-nghyfraith iddo fyned allan, gan ymaflyd ynddo i'w gynorthwyo. Ar y pryd roedd Mrs Jones yn ei gwely, wedi rhoddi genedigaeth i un bychan rai dyddiau yn flaenorol. Yn ofni, fel y tybir, rhag i'w gŵr a't thad fyned i ymladd, hi a geisiodd godi. Gwelwyd hi gan ei phriod, yr hwn a aeth ati; ond yr un foment, hi a gwmpodd, ac a drengodd. Bu y cyffro, a'r ymgais i godi, yn ormod i'w natur, yn ei gwendid, ymgynnal dano. BANER AC Amserau Cymru Wednesday, October 21, 1885?

[Cenotaph* SO Thomas & Jane, Plasterers Ho. Haulage Contractor. Died 2.04.1918.28 yrs.] Bro Daniel, Willie, Charlotte James] [CTA died of wounds 19.4.1918]

Johns, Thomas Private, 764031, London Regiment.

Thomas was the son of Thomas and Jane Johns, of Plasterer's House, Cardigan. He enlisted at Cardigan on 10 December 1915 into the 28th Battalion (Artists Rifles), London Regiment. The battalion had been an Officer Training unit, based at St. Omer, but on 28 June 1917 became attached to 190 Brigade, 63rd (Royal Naval) Division, moving to Ypres. Here Thomas saw his first major action, during the Second Battle of Passchendaele. The Divisions next major action was at Cambrai, during the Action of Welch Ridge, and they were still in the area when the Germans launched their Spring Offensive, and fought at the Battle of St Quentin, and then the First Battle of Bapaume. Thomas was badly wounded here, and died of his wounds at 29 Casualty Clearing Station on 2 April 1918. Thomas was 28 years old, and is buried at Gezaincourt Communal Cemetery Extension, France.

 In 1839-92 David Jones, saddler, lived and traded here, and his business plaque can still be seen on the north wall. He was also the landlord/occupier of the "Saddler's Arms" next door. In 1840 his daughter, Miriam, was born here. David Jones was 24 at the time and his wife, Elizabeth, was 19. They had many other children together here. David Jones was appointed a constable of the Borough in 1842. In 1846 Elizabeth Jones was born here and lived here until her death in 1910. In her adult life she traded here as a milliner and draper.

Jones, David Morgan Private, 2520, Welsh Regiment.

David enlisted at Cardigan into the 1/4th Battalion, Welsh Regiment, which was the local Territorial Battalion, attached to 159 Brigade, 53rd (Welsh) Division. The Division landed at Cape Helles, Gallipoli, on 9 August 1915, and was immediately thrown into action, spending the next few days in isolated pockets, fighting against a Turkish counter-attack during the Battle of Sari Bair, and then at the Attack on Scimitar Hill. David was killed in action here on 10 August 1915, and is commemorated on the Helles Memorial, Gallipoli.

Jones, David Owen Engineer, Mercantile Marine.

David was born at Cardigan in 1875, the son of Mary Jones. By 1891 the family was residing at 1, Upper Spring Gardens, Cardigan. David became an engineer with the Mercantile Marine, and by the outbreak of war was serving aboard the oil tanker S.S. San Jeronimo, which was owned by the Eagle Oil Transport Company. He died on active service on 26 November 1916, aged 41. Nothing further can be traced of David, as he is not commemorated by the CWGC.

Jones, David Owen Second Engineer Officer, Merchant Navy.

David was born in Cardigan on 1 December 1896, and was raised by his grandmother Susan Jones at 3, Tivy Terrace, St. Dogmaels. He lived with his wife, Mrs M. A. Jones at 63, Pomery Street, Docks, Cardiff prior to the war and served aboard the London registered merchant steamer S.S. Llanashe. On 17 February 1943 Llanashe was torpedoed and sunk by the German submarine U-182 south of Cape Saint Francis, Cape Colony, with the loss of 32 lives. David was 46 years old when he died that day and is commemorated on the Tower Hill Memorial, London.

Jones, Evan Lloyd Private, 91695, Durham Light Infantry.

Evan was born on 4 February 1899, the son of John Lloyd Jones and Jane Jones, of Ossian House, Eben's Lane, Cardigan. He worked as a Bank Clerk prior to enlisting at Brecon on 12 March 1917 into the Pembroke Yeomanry, and on 12 April 1918 was transferred to the 1/6th Battalion, Durham Light Infantry, which was attached to 151 Brigade, 50th (Northumbrian) Division. During March 1918 the battalion was stationed near St. Quentin, and was hit here by the German Spring Offensive of 21 March 1918, during the Battle of St Quentin. The division took part in a gallant rearguard action during the Actions at the Somme Crossings, and then at the Battle of Rosieres, suffering terrible casualties. Evan was captured by the Germans on the Somme during May 1918, and was taken to a Prisoner of War Camp at Worms in Germany, where he died on 4 October 1918, aged 19. Evan is buried at Worms (Hochheim Hill) Cemetery, Germany.

Jones, Harold Madoc [Cenotaph*: native of Bodfeirig, Môn.? Teacher in C Sec School for 10 years. Lodged 2 Park Place with Morgan Jones. Died Battle Pilkem Ridge, 31.07.1917.]

Jones, Harold Madoc MID, Lieutenant, Royal Welsh Fusiliers.

Harold was the son of John Roberts Jones, J.P. of Bodfeirig, Anglesey, and Eunice Martha Jones. He was educated at Christ's College, Brecon and University College of Wales, Aberystwyth, where he graduated with Classical Honours, before becoming a teacher at Cardigan School, lodging at 2, Park Terrace, Cardigan.

Harold originally enlisted into the Royal Welsh Fusiliers as a Private, but was commissioned into the 17th Battalion, Royal Welsh Fusiliers on 18 March 1915. The battalion was attached to 115 Brigade, 38th (Welsh) Division. On 4 December 1915 the battalion moved to France, and the entire Division moved to the Fleurbaix sector, where it was initiated into trench warfare. During June 1916 the Division marched south to the Somme, and on 7 July 1916 attacked Mametz Wood. The initial attack failed, and it was three days later, on 10 July, that a fresh attack was mounted. After two days of heavy hand to hand fighting within the wood, the Germans withdrew, and the battered Welshmen moved via Hebuterne to Boesinghe, on the Yser Canal, where it remained until launching its attack on Pilkem Ridge on 31 July 1917. Harold was killed at Pilkem on 31 July 1917. He was 38 years old, and is commemorated on the Ypres (Menin Gate) Memorial, Belgium. Harold had been Mentioned in Despatches for his bravery twice during the war.
