Thomas, Alfred William [Cenotaph: husb. Hetty Isabella, 2 Lloyd's Tce, St Dogmaels. SS Memnon, killed 12.03.1917.]

Thomas, Alfred William Second Engineer, Mercantile Marine. Alfred was born at St. Davids, and was the Husband of Hetty Isabella Thomas, of 2, Lloyd's Terrace, St. Dogmaels. He had been secretary at St. Mary's Church, Cardigan prior to the war, and joined the Mercantile Marine as an Engineer, serving aboard the SS Memnon, a Liverpool registered ship. The Memnon was a 3,203grt British Merchant steamer. On 12 March 1917 when twenty miles South-West from Portland Bill in the English Channel she was torpedoed without warning and sunk by German submarine UC-66. Six lives were lost, Alfred being one of them, after he had just gone below to the engine room to carry out some work, just before the torpedo struck. He was 29 years old, and is commemorated on the Tower Hill Memorial, London. Alfred was awarded a medal for gallantry at sea, for saving the life of a fellow crewman who fell overboard in shark infested waters while at sea in 1912.

[Cenotaph: b. 1887 SO William & Margaret Anne, Carningli, Priory St. Collier in Tumble. Galipoli. Died 03.11.1918 aged 32 years.]

Thomas, David Howell Private, 4089, Welsh Regiment.

David was born in 1888, the son of William and Margaret Thomas, of Carningly, Cardigan. He worked as a Collier prior to the war, residing at Church Street, Seven Sisters, but had enlisted at Carmarthen in April 1913 into the 4th Battalion, Welsh Regiment. David attended the annual TA camps at Haverfordwest and Porthmadoc in 1913 and 1914, and was embodied on 4 August 1914, after the declaration of war, joining the Battalion at The Blockhouse, Pembroke. He sailed for Gallipoli with the 1/4th Battalion, Welsh Regiment, which was attached to 159 Brigade, 53rd (Welsh) Division. The Division landed at Cape Helles, Gallipoli, on 9 August 1915, and was immediately thrown into action, spending the next few days in isolated pockets, fighting against a Turkish counter-attack during the Battle of Sari Bair, and then at the Attack on Scimitar Hill. David was shot in the foot during the terrible fighting of the first few days, and was evacuated home for treatment. After he recovered, he began working at the Pembrey Munitions Works. He died at Burry Port of influenza and pneumonia on 3 November 1918, aged 30 and was buried in Cardigan Cemetery. David is not commemorated by the CWGC.

Thomas, Evan James Private, 57071, North Staffordshire Regiment.

Evan was the son of Mrs. Meta James Thomas, of 21, North Road, Cardigan. He enlisted at Cardigan on 28 August 1917 into the army, and was posted to the 9th Battalion, North Staffordshire Regiment, which was in France attached to the 37th Division as the Divisional Pioneers, landing at Boulogne on 1 April 1918. Evan wasn't long in France before he was wounded by a German gas shell on 12 May 1918. He suffered for two days, before dying at 48 Field Ambulance on 14 May 1918, aged 18. Evan is buried at Bagneux British Cemetery, Gézaincourt, France.
